1.0 INTRODUCTION

Based on RYA Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy and Guidelines (for clubs, class associations and recognised training centres), updated February 2018

The RYA have produced guidelines to help our organisation to enable children and young people to enjoy the sports of sailing, windsurfing and power boating in all their forms, in a safe environment. This update takes from the RYA document which can be downloaded from the RYA's website, www.rya.org.uk/go/safeguarding

Definition of a child

The Children Act 1989 defined any person under the age of 18 as a 'child'. In this document and in day to day communications the terms 'children' and 'young people' are both used, recognising that older teenagers may prefer not to be referred to as 'children' although they are still children in the eyes of the law.

Safeguarding adults

Many of the safeguarding principles in the RYA guidelines also apply to 'vulnerable adults' or 'adults at risk' (Care Act 2014), but the categories of abuse and the statutory procedures to be followed in the case of a concern are different. Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club does not work specifically with adults who have learning disabilities. If this changes in the future these policies and procedures will require further review

RYA requirements

RYA Recognised Training Centres (RTCs), including all OnBoard and Team15 clubs and centres, are required to have a formal safeguarding and child protection policy which is checked as part of their annual inspection. RYA Champion Clubs and Recognised Junior and Youth Class Associations are also required to adopt and maintain a safeguarding and child protection policy.

There are several good reasons for doing this:

- to safeguard children from physical or emotional harm, both on and off the water
- to assure parents that their children are as safe at your organisation as they are when taking part in any other sport or leisure activity
- to raise awareness amongst all of your members, volunteers or employees so that they know what to do if they are concerned about a child, whether the concern relates to:
 - the child's welfare at your site or
 - something happening outside the sport that a child discloses to someone they trust at your club or centre
- to protect coaches, instructors, officials or volunteer helpers by giving them some practical, common sense guidelines to avoid placing themselves in situations where they are open to allegations which could seriously damage their lives and careers
- to protect the organisation, by showing that you have taken 'all reasonable steps' to provide a safe environment.

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 4 of 48

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club has taken the following steps in line with the RYA recommendations:

1. Adoption of a policy statement that defines Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club's commitment to providing a safe environment for children.

'Child Protection' can be an emotive term because people associate it with the most serious kinds of child abuse. 'Safeguarding' has become a more common term for promoting children's welfare, whilst 'child protection' tends to refer to actions taken in response to a specific concern or allegation. In a club context, 'Welfare Policy' might be more readily understood and accepted.

This policy is for the whole club not just the Sail Training Team.

All members should be aware of it, not just those directly involved in children's training and activities. Safeguarding children and young people is everyone's responsibility' (Statutory guidance 'Working Together to Safeguard Children').

2. Production of a simple code of practice and procedures governing how the Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club runs.

These cover:

- the safe recruitment of staff/volunteers who will be in contact with children
- good practice guidelines to ensure the safety and welfare of children at all times whilst at our site, both on and off the water (see Section 4)
- handling concerns, reports or allegations (see Section 5).

Everyone in Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club should be aware of the policy and have access to the supporting procedures, and those working with children must be familiar with the procedures.

2.0 CHESTER SAILING AND CANOEING CLUB POLICIES

2.1 Safeguarding Policy Statement

Based on RYA Policy, revised Feb 2018

Chester Sailing and Canoeing is committed to safeguarding, from physical, sexual or emotional harm, neglect or bullying, children taking part in its activities. We recognise that the safety, welfare and needs of the child are paramount and that all children, irrespective of age, disability, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual or gender identity or social status, have a right to protection from discrimination and abuse.

For the purposes of this policy anyone under the age of 18 will be considered as a child.

All members of the Club should be aware of the policy.

Club Welfare Officer

The Club Welfare Officer is: Tracy Hughes

Phone 01244 380694

Mobile 07831179974

Email: safeguarding@chestersailingandcanoecub.com

Club Volunteers

All new to Club volunteers, whose role brings them into regular contact with young people, will be asked to provide references. The Club Welfare Officer and those regularly instructing, coaching or supervising young people will also be asked to apply for an Enhanced Criminal Records Disclosure, with Barred List check if appropriate

Good Practice

All members of the Club should follow the good practice guidelines attached (Document 4) and agree to abide by the Club Code of Conduct (Document 5) and the RYA Racing Charter contained in the Racing Rules of Sailing. Those working or volunteering with young people should be aware of the guidance on recognising abuse (see Appendix A).

Adults are requested not to enter the showers and changing rooms at times when children are changing before or after junior/youth training or racing. If this is unavoidable, they are advised to be accompanied by another adult.

The Club will seek written consent from parents/carers before taking photos or video of a child at an event or training session or publishing such images. Parents and spectators should be prepared to identify themselves if requested and state their purpose for photography/filming. If the Club publishes images of children, no identifying information other than names will be included. Any concerns about inappropriate or intrusive photography or the inappropriate use of images should be reported to the Club Welfare Officer.

Concerns

Anyone who is concerned about a young member's or participant's welfare, either outside the sport or within the Club, should inform the Club Welfare Officer immediately, in strict confidence. The Club Welfare Officer will follow the attached procedures (see RYA Flowcharts 1 and 2).

Any member of the Club failing to comply with the Safeguarding policy or any relevant Codes of Conduct may be subject to disciplinary action under Club Rule 6.

2.2 Recruitment Policy Statement

Based on RYA Policy, revised Dec 2016, updated Feb 2018

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club requires all new volunteers externally recruited to posts involving regular contact with children to provide references and for all volunteers to obtain an Enhanced Criminal Records Disclosure, with Barred List check if applicable, prior to confirmation of appointment.

All Chester Sailing Instructors and Racing Coaches are to sign up to the Codes of Conduct (see Appendices B and C).

DBS Checks will also be reviewed annually by the Club Welfare Officer.

The Club Safeguarding and Child Protection policy statement is issued to all new volunteers. All Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Volunteers whose work may involve contact with children are required to familiarise themselves with these Guidelines and to undertake appropriate training.

2.3 Data Privacy Policy Statement

Based on RYA Policy, revised Dec 2016, updated Feb 2018

3.0 PROCEDURES

The following procedures are relevant to Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club:

3.1 Designated Person

Based on RYA guidance, revised Feb 2018

Although everyone has a role to play in ensuring that children are safe, as recommended by the RYA, Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club has a designated individual with the specific responsibility for implementing our policy. This is the Club Welfare Officer, who also acts as the point of contact to receive information and advice from the RYA.

The Club Welfare Officer's is responsible:

- Maintaining up-to-date policy and procedures, compatible with the RYA's.
- Ensuring that relevant volunteers are aware of and follow the procedures, including implementing safe recruitment procedures.
- Advising the management committee on safeguarding and child protection issues.
- Maintaining contact details for local Children's Services and Police.

If there is a concern, the Club Welfare Officer would:

- Be the first point of contact for any concerns or allegations, from children or adults, ensuring that confidentiality is maintained in all cases.
- Decide on the appropriate action to be taken, in line with the organisation's procedures and in conjunction with the person in charge (Commodore, Principal etc).
- Keep the RYA informed as necessary (see flowcharts in Section 5).

Everyone in the Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club should know who the Welfare Officer is and how to contact them.

3.2 Recruitment and Training

Revised Feb 2018

Although it is not a legal requirement for voluntary sports clubs or private employers to ask their staff or volunteers to apply for Disclosures, it is an offence to allow someone to undertake regulated activity/work if they have been barred from working with the relevant vulnerable group.

To ensure we maintain the highest possible standards, in line with Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Recruitment Policy the following checks will be carried out :

- new to club applicants / self-declaration form prior to appointment
- existing volunteers with specific responsibilities (eg. instructor, centre principal, child protection/welfare officer) plus anyone who regularly helps with junior/youth activity

The level of check to be conducted for each category:

- references/ self-declaration form – for new volunteers, new to the club
- Enhanced Criminal Records Disclosure (and Barred List check if appropriate).

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 8 of 48

It is a criminal offence under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006

- for a Barred individual to work in Regulated Activity/Regulated Work
- for an organisation to knowingly allow someone who has been Barred to work in Regulated Activity/Regulated Work, and
- for an organisation to fail to make a referral to the Disclosure and Barring Service/Disclosure Scotland if they have dismissed someone from Regulated Activity/Regulated Work for harming a child or vulnerable adult or placing them at risk of harm, or would have dismissed them if they had not resigned.

3.3 Confidentiality and Data Storage

Based on RYA guidance, Revised Feb 2018

All personal information, including Disclosure information, should be treated as confidential, stored securely and only shared with those who need to see it in the course of their duties or to protect children, in accordance with the DBS Codes of Conduct and Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club's Data Privacy Policy.

3.4 Safeguarding Training

Based on RYA guidance, Revised Feb 2018

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club ensures that all volunteers working with children have undertaken training appropriate to their role. This may be through formal training, an online course, induction and mentoring and/or continuing professional development.

The Welfare Officer shall either attend the RYA three-hour basic awareness workshop 'Safeguarding and Protecting Children' or the on-line module for Club Welfare offices available via RYA's Safeguarding and Equality manager, safeguarding@RYA.org.uk or 023 8060 4104.

All new instructors will also complete the online safeguarding awareness course 'Safe + Fun' as part of their qualification. The course is also available to anyone wishing to gain a basic awareness of safeguarding issues, or to refresh their knowledge.

All Instructors and Assistant Instructors will have an annual refresher workshop, run by the Club Welfare Officer as part of the annual preparation for training planning process.

4.0 GOOD PRACTICE GUIDELINES

Within Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club, it is important to continue to develop our culture where both children and adults feel able to raise concerns, knowing that they will be taken seriously, treated confidentially and will not make the situation worse for themselves or others.

The following good practices are relevant to Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club:

4.1 Minimising Risk

Based on RYA Good Practice, revised Dec 2016

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club plans its work and promotes good practice to minimise situations where adults are working unobserved or could take advantage of their position of trust. Good practice protects everyone – children and volunteers alike

These common-sense guidelines are to be made available to everyone.

- Avoid spending any significant time working with children in isolation
- Do not take children alone in a car, however short the journey
- Do not take children to your home as part of your organisation's activity
- Where any of these are unavoidable, ensure that they only occur with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge of the organisation or the child's parents
- Design training programmes that are within the ability of the individual child.
- If a child is having difficulty with a wetsuit or buoyancy aid, ask them to ask a friend to help if at all possible
- If you do have to help a child, make sure you are in full view of others, preferably another adult
- Restrict communications with young people via mobile phone, e-mail or social media to group communications about organisational matters. If it's essential to send an individual message, copy it to the child's parent or carer.

Never:

- engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games
- allow or engage in inappropriate touching of any form
- allow children to use inappropriate language unchallenged, or use such language yourself when with children
- make sexually suggestive comments to a child, even in fun
- fail to respond to an allegation made by a child; always act
- do things of a personal nature that children can do for themselves.

It may sometimes be necessary to do things of a personal nature for children, particularly if they are very young or disabled. These tasks should only be carried out with the full understanding and consent of both the child (where possible) and their parents/carers. In an emergency situation which requires this type of help, parents/carers should be informed as soon as possible. In such situations it is important to ensure that any adult present is sensitive to the child and undertakes personal care tasks with the utmost discretion.

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 10 of 48

Additional vulnerability

Revised Jan 2016

Some children may be more vulnerable to abuse or find it more difficult to express their concerns. For example:

- a disabled child who relies on a carer to help them get changed may worry that they won't be able to sail any more if they report the carer
- a deaf child may not be able to express themselves or speak confidentially if they need an interpreter
- a child who has experienced racism may find it difficult to trust an adult from a different ethnic background
- children with low self-esteem or mental health problems can be more vulnerable to bullying or abuse, as can gay, lesbian, bisexual or transgender young people, or any child who has a characteristic that marks them out in others' eyes as 'different'.

4.2 Grooming

Based on RYA Good Practice, added Dec 2016

Grooming is when someone develops a relationship with a child over a period of time to gain their trust for the purposes of sexual abuse or exploitation. Children and young people can be groomed online or face-to-face, by a stranger or by someone they know - for example a family member, friend or professional. For more information on possible signs of grooming, see <https://www.nspcc.org.uk/preventing-abuse/child-abuse-and-neglect/grooming/> Sometimes the perpetrator grooms the entire family, building a relationship with the child's parents/carers so that they are allowed more access to the child than would normally be the case.

Similar behaviour could be used to radicalise young people and recruit them to a religious or political cause. This is unlikely to happen in a sailing club setting, but under the government's 'Prevent' strategy teachers and others working with young people are receiving training on recognising the warning signs.

4.3 Bullying

Based on RYA Good Practice, revised Feb 2018

If a child alleges bullying or shows signs of being bullied, this will be investigated by either the Child Welfare Officer or the Club Principal. For a definition of bullying, see Appendix A. Safeguarding and child protection procedures should include an Anti-Bullying policy. The RYA's Anti-bullying policy is available on the website under Racing, Youth and Junior, Information, Policies or click on this link: <http://www.rya.org.uk/racing/youthjunior/information/Pages/Policies.aspx>

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 11 of 48

The Child Protection in Sport Unit also publishes a sample Anti-bullying policy and guidance, see <https://thecpsu.org.uk/help-advice/topics/anti-bullying/> Resources and advice for young people can be found on www.kidscape.org.uk and www.childline.org.uk

Children and young people will be asked to sign up to the Club Code of Conduct (Document 5)

4.4 Managing challenging behaviour

Based on RYA Good Practice, revised Jan 2015

Guidance for instructors and coaches on handling young people who display challenging behaviour is available as a download from the RYA website www.rya.org.uk/go/safeguarding, under RYA Safeguarding and Child Protection Guidelines.

4.5 Responsibilities of staff and volunteers

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club volunteers are given clear roles and responsibilities, they are made aware of our safeguarding policy and procedures and are issued with guidelines on:

- following good practice (see Good Practice Guidelines above and Document 4) and
- recognising signs of abuse (see Appendix A).

RYA Coaches and Instructors are expected to comply with the RYA Codes and Conduct (see Appendices B and C).

4.6 Parental responsibility and club liability

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Jan 2015

Parents play an essential part in their children's participation, but occasionally their desire to see their child achieve success can put the child under too much pressure or give rise to friction between families or interference in coaching. Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club has adopted a Code of Conduct (Document 5) that can be signed up to by everyone involved, whether they are participants, parents, or volunteers, so that everyone is aware of their responsibilities towards each other and appropriate action can be taken if anyone's behaviour fails to meet the expectations set out in the Code.

Although Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club has a duty of care to their members, and particularly to young people who cannot take full responsibility for their own safety, parents must be responsible for their children's welfare and behaviour, or designate another adult to take that responsibility, outside formal club-organised activities.

When children are attending an organised training or coaching session or activity, the organisers have a duty of care for their safety and welfare at all times. Responsibility transfers to the instructor, coach or organiser after the child has been signed in and back to the end of the parent at the agreed end of the session.

More information is available via the RYA web page

<http://www.rya.org.uk/clubs/support/management/healthandsafety/Pages/organisingandmanagingevents.aspx>

4.7 Changing rooms and showers

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Jan 2012

Shower areas should, where possible, be designed to allow both adults and children to shower and dress in reasonable privacy. At Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club we have a separate male and female changing rooms.

It is preferable for adults to stay away from the changing rooms while there are children there. When this is not always possible as adults can be sailing at the same time, it is better if one adult is not alone.

Parents are advised that adult club members may be in the changing rooms.

Bullying can be an issue in changing rooms and showers (see Bullying on page 10).

If it is essential, in an emergency situation, for a male to enter a female changing area or vice versa, they will normally be accompanied by another adult of the opposite sex.

4.8 First aid and medical treatment

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Dec 2016

First aid, provided by an appropriately trained and qualified person, is part of an organisation's normal duty of care. Prior consent is obtained should medication or medical treatment be required in the absence of the parent/carer (see Document 6).

4.9 Organising and hosting events

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2008

When hosting an open junior or youth event at Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club, the organising individual will liaise with the relevant class association to ensure that all involved in the organisation of the event are operating to similar policies. It is made clear to all young competitors and their parents that there is someone responsible for their welfare who can be contacted if they have any concerns.

4.10 Away events

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2018

It is essential that those accompanying young people to away events or training camps, and the competitors themselves, have a clear understanding of their responsibilities and the conduct expected of them.

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 13 of 48

The RYA Racing Department has Sailor Supervision Guidelines and other detailed policies for the RYA junior and youth squad programmes. These are available on the RYA website, see Racing & Performance, Youth and Junior, Information, Policy Guidance, or click on www.rya.org.uk/racing/youthjunior/information/Pages/Policies.aspx They may be a useful reference for events organised by bodies other than the RYA but should not be taken as prescriptive.

4.11 Communication and Images

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2018

The world of the internet, social media and apps is constantly and rapidly evolving and it is hard to keep up to date, but it is important for parents and for anyone working with young people to develop some understanding of how they use technology, the risks involved and how to keep them safe. Suggested sources of information, mainly intended for parents but useful for anyone, are:

www.nspcc.org.uk/shareaware www.net-aware.org.uk

www.internetmatters.org www.getsafeonline.org

4.11.1 Parents

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club is are responsible for the content published on our sites, but parents must accept responsibility for their children's access to and use of computers, tablets and smartphones. See the links above for guidance.

4.11.2 Club Websites and Social Media

When promoting our club and encouraging our members to interact online, there are a few issues to bear in mind in relation to children and young people:

- follow the RYA guidance on the use of images of children (see Photography section below)
- ensure that the content and language on our site or page, including contributions to blogs, forums etc, is not inappropriate for younger visitors and does not link directly to unsuitable material on other sites
- provide a clear process for parents and others to report inappropriate content or online bullying and to request that content is removed
- have a robust procedure for handling and assessing such a report or request and acting promptly to remove the offending content.

4.11.3 Coaches and Instructors, Training Administrator

The training administrator has a club phone for contracting Children and young people. Members of the club should:

- only contact sailors via the administrator on the club phone or (or use the Facebook system)
- avoid using over-familiar language and try to copy in the child's parent/carer
- only communicate regarding organisational matters, not for social or personal contact.
- Where email, communication should be via the child's parent/carer. The training administrator and club welfare should always be copied.

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 14 of 48

When using social media, it is recommended that you the club social media:

- Keep this separate from members personal social media
- Do not allow young sailors to follow or be friends with your personal account
- Set your privacy settings as high as possible on your personal account
- Challenge the way that young sailors post or comment to you or others on social media if it is inappropriate
- Educate young sailors about the boundaries between them and their Coach or Instructor.

Coaches on the RYA's Youth and Junior squad programmes are expected to comply with the RYA Youth Racing Communications Policy.

4.11.4 Children and Young People

Children and young people use modern technology as a matter of course, but they don't always understand the risks involved and their parents are not always fully aware of their children's risky behaviour. Online communication and texting can often be used as a means of bullying.

'Cyberbullying' should be treated in the same way as any other form of bullying.

www.thinkuknow.co.uk and www.childline.org.uk provide guidance and support for children and young people in different age groups, as well as for parents and carers, on matters such as online bullying, sharing images and 'sexting'.

4.12 Photography, images and video

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Dec 2005

Publishing articles, photos and videos in club newsletters, on websites, in local newspapers etc is an excellent way of recognising young people's achievements and of promoting Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club, and the sport as a whole. However, it is important to minimise the risk of anyone using images of children in an inappropriate way. Digital technology makes it easy to take, store, send, manipulate and publish images.

There are two key principles to bear in mind:

Before taking photos or video, obtain written consent from the child's parents/carers for their images to be taken and used

- A consent form could be included with the event entry form (Document 6).
- Any photographer or member of the press or media attending an event should wear identification at all times and should be fully briefed in advance on your expectations regarding his/her behaviour and the issues covered by these guidelines.

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 15 of 48

- Do not allow a photographer to have unsupervised access to young people at the event or to arrange photo sessions outside the event.
- Consent should also be obtained for the use of video as a coaching aid. Any other use by a coach will be regarded as a breach of the RYA's Code of Conduct.
- Care must be taken in the storage of and access to images.

When publishing images, make sure they are appropriate and that you do not include any information that might enable someone to contact the child

- It is preferable to use a general shot showing participants on the water, or a group shot of the prize winners, without identifying them by name.
- If you are recognising the achievement of an individual sailor and wish to publish their name with their photo, DO NOT publish any other information (eg. where they live, name of school, other hobbies and interests) that could enable someone to contact, befriend or start to 'groom' the child.
- Ensure that the young people pictured are suitably dressed, to reduce the risk of inappropriate use.

Most sailing activity takes place in areas that are open to the public and it is therefore not possible to control all photography, but any concerns about inappropriate or intrusive photography, or about the inappropriate use of images, should be reported to the organisation's child protection/welfare officer and treated in the same way as any other child protection concern. Parents and spectators should be prepared to identify themselves if requested and state their purpose for photography/filming.

The use of cameras or smart phones/tablets in changing areas should not be permitted in any circumstances. Such use by young people should be regarded as a form of bullying.

5.0 HANDLING CONCERNS, REPORTS OR ALLEGATIONS

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Jan 2015

This section is primarily for the CSCC designated Welfare Officer, but everyone should be aware of the procedures to follow if there are concerns (see flowcharts below).

A complaint, concern or allegation may come from a number of sources: the child, their parents, someone else within Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club. It may involve the behaviour of one of your volunteers, or something that has happened to the child outside the sport, perhaps at home or at school. Children may confide in adults they trust, in a place where they feel at ease.

An allegation may range from mild verbal bullying to physical or sexual abuse. If you are concerned that a child may be being abused, it is NOT your responsibility to investigate further BUT it is your responsibility to act on your concerns and report them to the appropriate statutory authorities. For guidance on recognising abuse, see Appendix A.

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 16 of 48

5.1 Handling an allegation from a child

Always:

- stay calm – ensure that the child is safe and feels safe
- show and tell the child that you are taking what he/she says seriously
- reassure the child and stress that he/she is not to blame
- be careful about physical contact, it may not be what the child wants
- be honest, explain that you will have to tell someone else to help stop the alleged abuse
- make a record of what the child has said as soon as possible after the event, using the child's own words
- follow your organisation's child protection procedures.

Never:

- rush into actions that may be inappropriate
- make promises you cannot keep (eg. you won't tell anyone)
- ask leading questions (see 'Recording and handling information' below)
- take sole responsibility – consult someone else (ideally the designated Child Protection/Welfare Officer or the person in charge or someone you can trust) so that you can begin to protect the child and gain support for yourself.

You may be upset about what the child has said or you may worry about the consequences of your actions. Sometimes people worry about children being removed from their families as a result of abuse, but in reality, this rarely happens. However, one thing is certain – you cannot ignore it.

5.2 Recording and handling information

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2018

If you suspect that a child may have been the subject of any form of physical, emotional or sexual abuse or neglect, the allegation must be referred as soon as possible to Children's Social Care or the Police who have trained experts to handle such cases. Do not start asking leading questions which may jeopardise any formal investigation.

A leading question is where you suggest an answer or provide options that only need a 'yes' or 'no' answer, instead of allowing the child to explain things in their own words. An example would be asking 'did X hit you?' instead of 'how did you get that bruise?'. Use open questions such as 'what happened next?'. Only ask questions to confirm that you need to refer the matter to someone else. Listen to and keep a record of anything the child tells you or that you have observed and pass the information on to the statutory authorities (see Document 7 - Referral Form).

All information must be treated as confidential and only shared with those who need to know. If the allegation or suspicion concerns someone within your club or centre, only the child's parents/carers, the person in charge of the organisation (unless they are the subject of the allegation), the relevant authorities and the RYA Safeguarding and Equality Manager should be informed. If the alleged abuse took place outside the sport, the Police or Children’s Social Care will decide who else needs to be informed, including the child’s parents/carers. It should not be discussed by anyone within the organisation other than the person who received or initiated the allegation and, if different, the person in charge.

Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 17 of 48

Confidential information must be processed, stored and destroyed in accordance with your organisation’s Data Privacy Policy and Data Protection legislation.

5.3 Procedures

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2018

It is essential to have clear and agreed procedures to follow. These include:

- procedures to be followed by anyone concerned about a child’s welfare, either outside the sport or within your organisation (see flowcharts below)
- a disciplinary procedure setting out the process to be followed if an allegation or complaint is made about a volunteer
- a procedure for handling a complaint about a member

5.4 Statutory Authorities

Based on RYA Good Practice, Added Jan 2012

If Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club is contacted by the Police or Children’s Services concerning information received or a complaint made by or about a member or volunteer, we will contact the RYA Safeguarding and Equality Manager as soon as possible for guidance and support. Whilst members should co-operate fully with official requests for factual information, they should not express any personal opinions on the person’s conduct.

5.5 Handling the media

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Dec 2005

If there is an incident at Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club which attracts media interest, or if a member is contacted by the media with an allegation concerning one of our members, you are advised not give any response until you have had an opportunity to check the facts and seek advice. Please contact the Club Welfare Officer. In addition, there is additional support from the RYA’s Communications department on 023 8060 4215 for professional advice on handling the media.

5.6 Insurance

Based on RYA Good Practice, Added Feb 2018

If there is a serious allegation involving harm caused to a child either at your premises or as a result of taking part in your activities, the person in charge should consider notifying your insurers in case there is a subsequent claim against the organisation.

5.7 Historical allegations

Based on RYA Good Practice, Added Dec 2016

If someone raises a child protection concern relating to incidents that took place some time ago, follow the same procedure as you would for a new concern, even if the person about whom the allegation is being made is no longer active within your organisation. If the concern appears to relate to a criminal offence, encourage the individual to contact the Police on 101.

5.8 Reference to the Disclosure and Barring Service or Disclosure Scotland

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2013

The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) maintains the lists of people barred from working with children or with vulnerable adults in England and Wales and in Northern Ireland. If Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club permanently removes someone from a role involving Regulated Activity/Work, or would have removed them if they had not left, because they have harmed a child or vulnerable adult or placed them at risk of harm, you have a duty to refer them to the DBS. It is a criminal offence not to make such a referral. For guidance on the grounds and process for making a referral, see the relevant website (see Section 6 Useful Contacts) or contact the RYA Safeguarding and Equality Manager.

5.9 Reporting Procedures

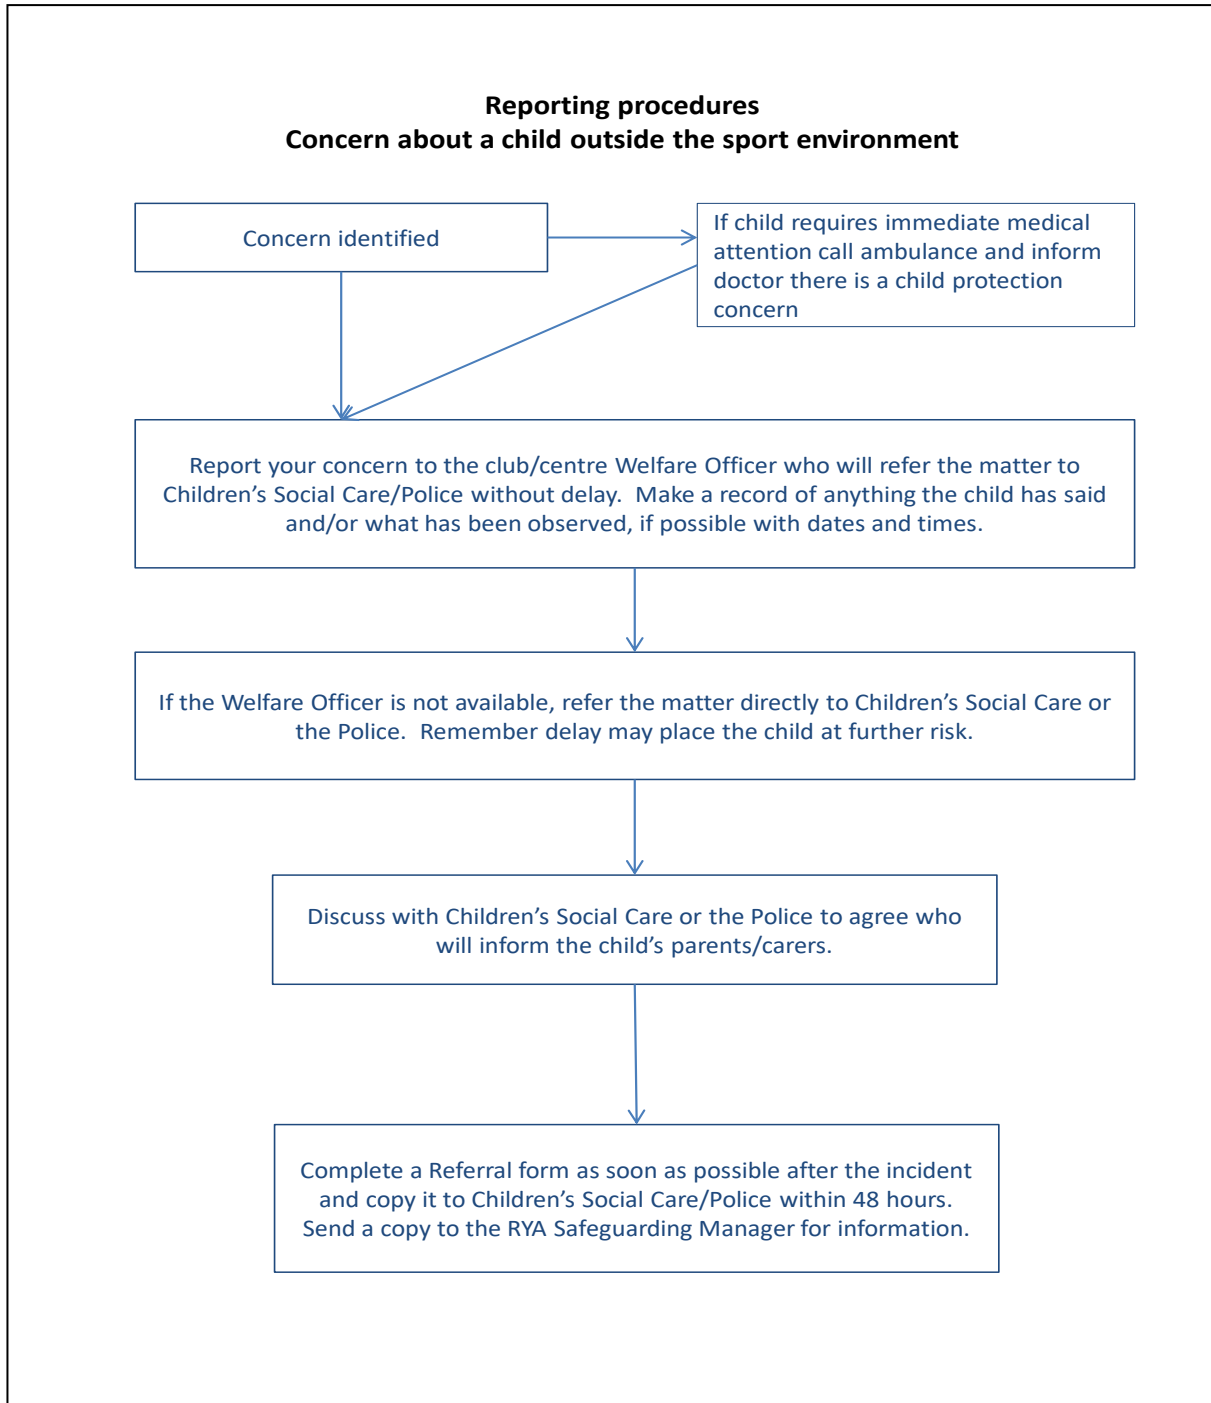

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Jan 2015

If you are uncertain what to do at any stage, contact the RYA's Safeguarding and Equality Manager on 023 8060 4104 or the NSPCC free 24-hour helpline 0808 800 5000.

Details of Children's Social Care departments and emergency duty teams are listed on local authority websites and in local phone books. If you are unable to find the appropriate contact number, call the RYA's Safeguarding and Equality Manager or, if a child is at immediate risk, the Police.

Document 4 – Good Practice Guide

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Dec 2016

Good Practice Guide for Instructors, Coaches and Volunteers

This guide only covers the essential points of good practice when working with children and young people. You should also read Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club's Child Protection Policy and Procedures which are available for reference at all times.

- Avoid spending any significant time working with children in isolation
- Do not take children alone in a car, however short the journey
- Do not take children to your home as part of your organisation's activity
- Where any of these are unavoidable, ensure that they only occur with the full knowledge and consent of someone in charge of the organisation or the child's parents
- Design training programmes that are within the ability of the individual child
- If a child is having difficulty with a wetsuit or buoyancy aid, ask them to ask a friend to help if at all possible
- If you do have to help a child, make sure you are in full view of others, preferably another adult
- Restrict communications with young people via mobile phone, e-mail or social media to group communications about organisational matters. If it's essential to send an individual message, copy it to the child's parent or carer.

You should never:

- engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games
- allow or engage in inappropriate touching of any form
- allow children to use inappropriate language unchallenged, or use such language yourself when with children
- make sexually suggestive comments to a child, even in fun
- fail to respond to an allegation made by a child; always act
- do things of a personal nature that children can do for themselves.

It may sometimes be necessary to do things of a personal nature for children, particularly if they are very young or disabled. These tasks should only be carried out with the full understanding and consent of the child (where possible) and their parents/carers. In an emergency situation which requires this type of help, parents should be fully informed. In such situations it is important to ensure that any adult present is sensitive to the child and undertakes personal care tasks with the utmost discretion.

Document 5 – Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Code of Conduct

Based on RYA Good Practice, Added Jan 2012

It is the policy of Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club that all participants, coaches, instructors, officials, parents and volunteers show respect and understanding for each other, treat everyone equally within the context of the sport and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the club.

The aim is for all participants to enjoy their sport and to improve performance.

Abusive language, swearing, intimidation, aggressive behaviour or lack of respect for others and their property will not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action.

Participants - young sailors, and powerboaters

- Listen to and accept what you are asked to do to improve your performance and keep you safe
- Respect other participants, coaches, instructors, officials and volunteers
- Abide by the rules and play fairly
- Do your best at all times
- Never bully others either in person, by phone, by text or online
- Take care of all property belonging to other participants, the club/class or its members

Parents

- Support your child's involvement and help them enjoy their sport
- Help your child to recognise good performance, not just results
- Never force your child to take part in sport
- Never punish or belittle a child for losing or making mistakes
- Encourage and guide your child to accept responsibility for their own conduct and performance
- Respect and support the coach
- Accept officials' judgements and recognise good performance by all participants
- Use established procedures where there is a genuine concern or dispute
- Inform the club or event organisers of relevant medical information
- Ensure that your child wears suitable clothing and has appropriate food and drink
- Provide contact details and be available when required
- Take responsibility for your child's safety and conduct in and around the clubhouse/event venue

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 32 of 48

Coaches, Instructors, Officials and Volunteers

- Consider the welfare and safety of participants before the development of performance
- Encourage participants to value their performance and not just results
- Promote fair play and never condone cheating
- Ensure that all activities are appropriate to the age, ability and experience of those taking part
- Build relationships based on mutual trust and respect
- Work in an open environment
- Avoid unnecessary physical contact with young people
- Be an excellent role model and display consistently high standards of behaviour and appearance
- Do not drink alcohol or smoke when working directly with young people
- Communicate clearly with parents and participants
- Be aware of any relevant medical information
- Follow RYA and club/class guidelines and policies
- Holders of RYA Instructor and Coach qualifications must also comply with the RYA Code of Conduct
- Holders of RYA Race Official appointments must also comply with the RYA Race Officials Code of Conduct.

If you are concerned that someone is not following the Code of Conduct, you should inform your Club Welfare Officer or the person in charge of the activity.

Appendix A – What is child abuse?

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2018

(Based on the statutory guidance ‘Working Together to Safeguard Children’)

Abuse and neglect are forms of maltreatment of a child. Somebody may abuse or neglect a child by inflicting harm, or by failing to act to prevent harm. Children may be abused in a family or in an institutional or community setting by those known to them or, more rarely, by others (including via the internet). They may be abused by an adult or adults, or another child or children.

Physical abuse may involve adults or other children inflicting physical harm:

- by hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning or scalding, drowning or suffocating
- giving children alcohol or inappropriate drugs
- in sport situations, physical abuse might also occur when the nature and intensity of training exceeds the capacity of the child’s immature and growing body.

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional maltreatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effects on the child’s emotional development. It may involve:

- conveying to a child that they are worthless, unloved or inadequate
- not giving the child opportunities to express their views, deliberately silencing them or ‘making fun’ of what they say or how they communicate
- imposing expectations which are beyond the child’s age or developmental capability
- overprotection and limitation of exploration and learning or preventing the child from participating in normal social interaction
- allowing a child to see or hear the ill-treatment of another person
- serious bullying (including cyber bullying), causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger
- the exploitation or corruption of children
- emotional abuse in sport might also include situations where parents or coaches subject children to constant criticism, bullying or pressure to perform at a level that the child cannot realistically be expected to achieve.

Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of maltreatment of a child.

Sexual abuse. Sexual abuse involves an individual (male or female, or another child) forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in sexual activities, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening, to gratify their own sexual needs. The activities may involve:

- physical contact (eg. kissing, touching, masturbation, rape or oral sex)
- involving children in looking at, or in the production of, sexual images
- encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways or watch sexual activities
- grooming a child in preparation for abuse (including via the internet)

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 44 of 48

- sport situations which involve physical contact (eg. supporting or guiding children) could potentially create situations where sexual abuse may go unnoticed. Abusive situations may also occur if adults misuse their power over young people.

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child’s basic physical and/or psychological needs, likely to result in the serious impairment of the child’s health or development. Neglect may involve a parent or carer failing to:

- provide adequate food, clothing and shelter
- protect a child from physical and emotional harm or danger
- ensure adequate supervision
- ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment
- respond to a child’s basic emotional needs
- neglect in a sport situation might occur if an instructor or coach fails to ensure that children are safe, or exposes them to undue cold or risk of injury.

Child sexual exploitation is a form of child sexual abuse. It occurs where an individual or group takes advantage of an imbalance of power to coerce, manipulate or deceive a child or young person under the age of 18 into sexual activity in exchange for something the victim needs and wants (eg. attention, money or material possessions, alcohol or drugs), and/or for the financial advantage or increased status of the perpetrator or facilitator. The victim may have been exploited even if the sexual activity appears consensual. Child sexual exploitation can also occur online without involving physical contact.

Extremism goes beyond terrorism and includes people who target the vulnerable - including the young - by seeking to: sow division between communities on the basis of race, faith or denomination; justify discrimination eg. towards women and girls; persuade others that minorities are inferior; or argue against the primacy of democracy and the rule of law in our society.

Bullying (not included in ‘Working Together’ but probably more common in a sport situation than some of the other forms of abuse described above)

Bullying (including online bullying, for example via text or social media) may be seen as deliberately hurtful behaviour, usually repeated or sustained over a period of time, where it is difficult for those being bullied to defend themselves. The bully is often another young person. Although anyone can be the target of bullying, victims are typically shy, sensitive and perhaps anxious or insecure. Sometimes they are singled out for physical reasons – being overweight or physically small, being gay or lesbian, having a disability or belonging to a different race, faith or culture.

Bullying can include:

Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Policy and Procedures	Revision No V0.3
Title Chester Sailing and Canoeing Club Safeguarding Policy and Procedures	Page 45 of 48

- physical pushing, kicking, hitting, pinching etc
- name calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, persistent teasing and emotional torment through ridicule, humiliation or the continual ignoring of individuals
- posting of derogatory or abusive comments, videos or images on social network sites
- racial taunts, graffiti, gestures, sectarianism
- sexual comments, suggestions or behaviour
- unwanted physical contact.

The acronym STOP – Several Times On Purpose - can help you to identify bullying behaviour.

Recognising Abuse

It is not always easy, even for the most experienced carers, to spot when a child has been abused. However, some of the more typical symptoms which should trigger your suspicions would include:

- unexplained or suspicious injuries such as bruising, cuts or burns, particularly if situated on a part of the body not normally prone to such injuries
- sexually explicit language or actions
- a sudden change in behaviour (eg. becoming very quiet, withdrawn or displaying sudden outbursts of temper)
- the child describes what appears to be an abusive act involving him/her
- a change observed over a long period of time (eg. the child losing weight or becoming increasingly dirty or unkempt)
- a general distrust and avoidance of adults, especially those with whom a close relationship would be expected
- an unexpected reaction to normal physical contact
- difficulty in making friends or abnormal restrictions on socialising with others.

It is important to note that a child could be displaying some or all of these signs, or behaving in a way which is worrying, without this necessarily meaning that the child is being abused. Similarly, there may not be any signs, but you may just feel that something is wrong. If you have noticed a change in the child's behaviour, first talk to the parents or carers. It may be that something has happened, such as a bereavement, which has caused the child to be unhappy.

If you are concerned

If there are concerns about sexual abuse or violence in the home, talking to the parents or carers might put the child at greater risk. If you cannot talk to the parents/carers, consult CSCC's designated Welfare/Safeguarding Officer or the person in charge. It is this person's responsibility to make the decision to contact Children's Social Care Services or the Police. It is NOT their responsibility to decide if abuse is taking place, BUT it is their responsibility to act on your concerns.

Appendix B – RYA Instructor Code of Conduct

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Feb 2014

RYA Instructor Code of Conduct for RYA Instructors, Coach Assessors, Trainers and Examiners

This document outlines the code of conduct under which all holders of RYA instructor qualifications and RYA training appointments (hereafter referred to as instructors) are required to comply. The code of conduct is intended to make clear to all participants, instructors and RYA appointment holders the high standards to which all are expected to conform. Instructors must:

- If working with people under the age of 18, read and understand the Child Protection Policy as detailed on the RYA website at www.rya.org.uk and CSCC Safeguarding Policy.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person and treat everyone equally within the context of their sport.
- Place the wellbeing and safety of the student above the development of performance or delivery of training.
- They should follow all guidelines laid down by the RYA with regards specific training or coaching programmes.
- Hold appropriate insurance cover either individually or through the training centre in which they are working.
- Not develop inappropriate working relationships with students (especially children). Relationships must be based on mutual trust and respect and not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward.
- Encourage and guide students to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.
- Hold relevant up to date governing body qualifications as approved by the RYA.
- Ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual.
- At the outset, clarify with students (and where appropriate their parents) exactly what is expected of them and what they are entitled to expect.
- Always promote the positive aspects of the sport (eg courtesy to other water users).
- Consistently display high standards of behaviour and appearance.
- Not do or neglect to do anything which may bring the RYA into disrepute.
- Act with integrity in all customer and business to business dealings pertaining to RYA training.
- Not teach or purport to provide RYA courses or RYA certification outside of the framework of an RYA recognised training centre
- Notify the RYA immediately of any court imposed sanction that precludes the instructor from contact with specific user groups (for example children and vulnerable adults).

Appendix C – RYA Coach Code of Ethics and Conduct

Based on RYA Good Practice, Revised Jan 2012

Sports Coaching helps the development of individuals through improving their performance.

This is achieved by:

1. Identifying and meeting the needs of individuals.
2. Improving performance through a progressing programme of safe, guided practice, measured performance and/or competition.
3. Creating an environment in which individuals are motivated to maintain participation and improve performance.

Coaches should comply with the principles of good ethical practice listed below.

1. All RYA Coaches working with sailors under the age of 18 must have read and understood the Child Protection Policy as detailed on the RYA website at www.rya.org.uk. If you are unable to access the website please contact the Racing Department for a copy.
2. Coaches must respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person and treat everyone equally within the context of their sport.
3. Coaches must place the well-being and safety of the performer above the development of performance. They should follow all guidelines laid down by the RYA and hold appropriate insurance cover.
4. Coaches must develop an appropriate working relationship with performers based on mutual trust and respect. Coaches must not exert undue influence to obtain personal benefit or reward. In particular they must not abuse their position of trust to establish or pursue a sexual relationship with a sailor aged under 18, or an inappropriate relationship with any sailor.
5. Coaches must encourage and guide performers to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance.
6. Coaches must hold up to date and nationally recognised governing body coaching qualifications.
7. Coaches must ensure that the activities they direct or advocate are appropriate for the age, maturity, experience and ability of the individual.
8. Coaches must, at the outset, clarify with performers (and where appropriate their parents) exactly what is expected of them and what performers are entitled to expect from their coach. A contract may sometimes be appropriate.
9. Coaches must co-operate fully with other specialists (eg. other coaches, officials, sports scientists, doctors, physiotherapists) in the best interests of the performer.
10. Coaches must always promote the positive aspects of their sport (eg. fair play) and never condone rule violations or the use of prohibited substances.
11. Coaches must consistently display high standards of behaviour and appearance.
